Sixteenth Annual C.O.O.L. Kids Race

The Children Overcoming Obstacles in Life (C.O.O.L.) Kids Race is an annual event for physically and/or mentally challenged children of all ages. The race takes place at LifeWorks of Southwest General and is held rain or shine. It is supported by generous donations from physicians, families, Southwest General staff members, community organizations and the public. Funds raised by the race help support the “Fulfill a Dream” program. Each child receives a T-shirt for participating in the race. There will be games, activities and refreshments for all. It’s a fun-filled day for everyone!
